

Special Issue Call for papers: The Journal of Contemporary Issues in Business and Government in Collaboration with RMIT University Gender Accounting and Accountability Conference call for papers for the special issue on “Gender Accounting and Accountability”.

Guest Editors:

Dr Tehmina Khan (Chair RMIT GAAC Academic Committee), Senior Lecturer, RMIT University

Dr Pavithra Siriwardhane, Lecturer, RMIT University,

Dr Sarath Lal Ukwatte, Lecturer, RMIT University

Associate Professor Prem Yapa, RMIT University,

Dr Daniel Richards, Lecturer, RMIT University,

Dr Michael Kend, Lecturer, RMIT University,

Dr Mahesh Joshi, Senior Lecturer, RMIT University.

The Journal of Contemporary Issues in Business and Government is an open-access, peer-reviewed international journal dedicated to the exchange of original scholarly research that informs business decision making and/or government policy. The journal is cross-sectoral, interdisciplinary and eclectic, and contributions are welcome across a wide range of research methodologies (e.g., theoretical or empirical, using either quantitative or qualitative methods) and topics. The journal of Contemporary Issues in Business and Government is abstracted in the Informit Business Collection Database and is ranked in Excellence of Research Australia (ERA) Journal List and Australian Business Deans Council (ABDC) Journal Ranking List.

“Gender Accounting and Accountability” is a term coined for GAAC19 Conference held in October 2019. According to Khan (2019) Gender Accounting and Accountability is a term that encapsulates a wide range of impacting elements including the following: Gender reporting and transparency, Gender related organizational policy and its impact, gender related data, gender communications through multiple mediums, as well as gender accountabilities of governments, businesses, organizations and individuals.

Special issue is accepting papers on the following aspects of gender accounting and accountability (but are not restricted to):

- Gender reporting and transparency,
- Gender statistics (big data, dis-aggregated data, micro level data),
- Gender related narratives,
- Gender related communications through conventional and non-conventional mediums,
- Gender accountabilities and impacts,
- Gender related policies and impacts.
- Gender transparency and accountability philosophical thoughts.

Full papers for Contemporary Issues in Business and Government special issue on “Gender Accounting and Accountability” will be due by 30 June 2020 at midnight AEST. The submission of both industry opinion pieces and academic journal articles are invited. Please follow the author guidelines for full papers available on the Journal’s website (<http://cibg.org.au>). Full papers submitted to the journal will be reviewed by at least two reviewers.

Paper submission guidelines are available at <http://cibg.org.au/submit-papers/>
